Assumption College
Worcester, Massachusetts
1978

One generation passes and another comes, but the world forever stays. The sun rises and the sun goes down, returning to the place where it rises. Blowing toward the South and then toward the North, the wind changes again and again. All rivers run into the sea yet the sea is not full, for the sea turns to rain and the rain turns to river.

Ecclesiastes

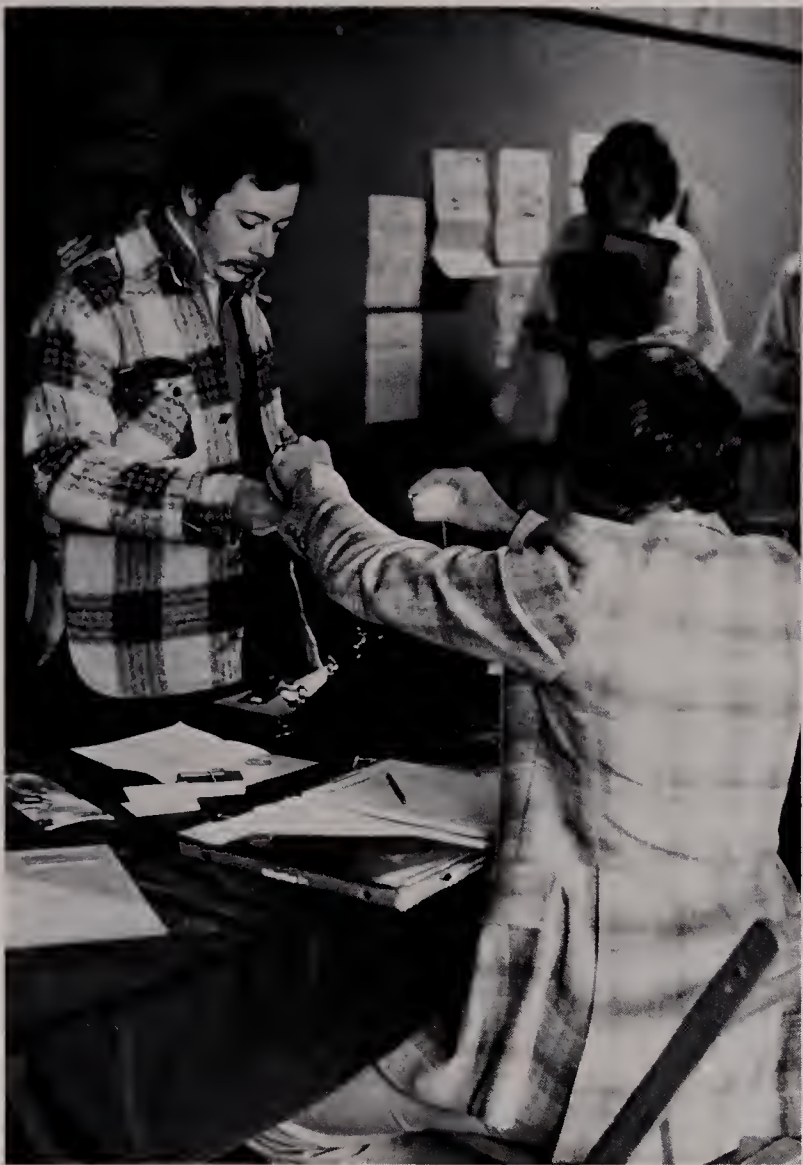

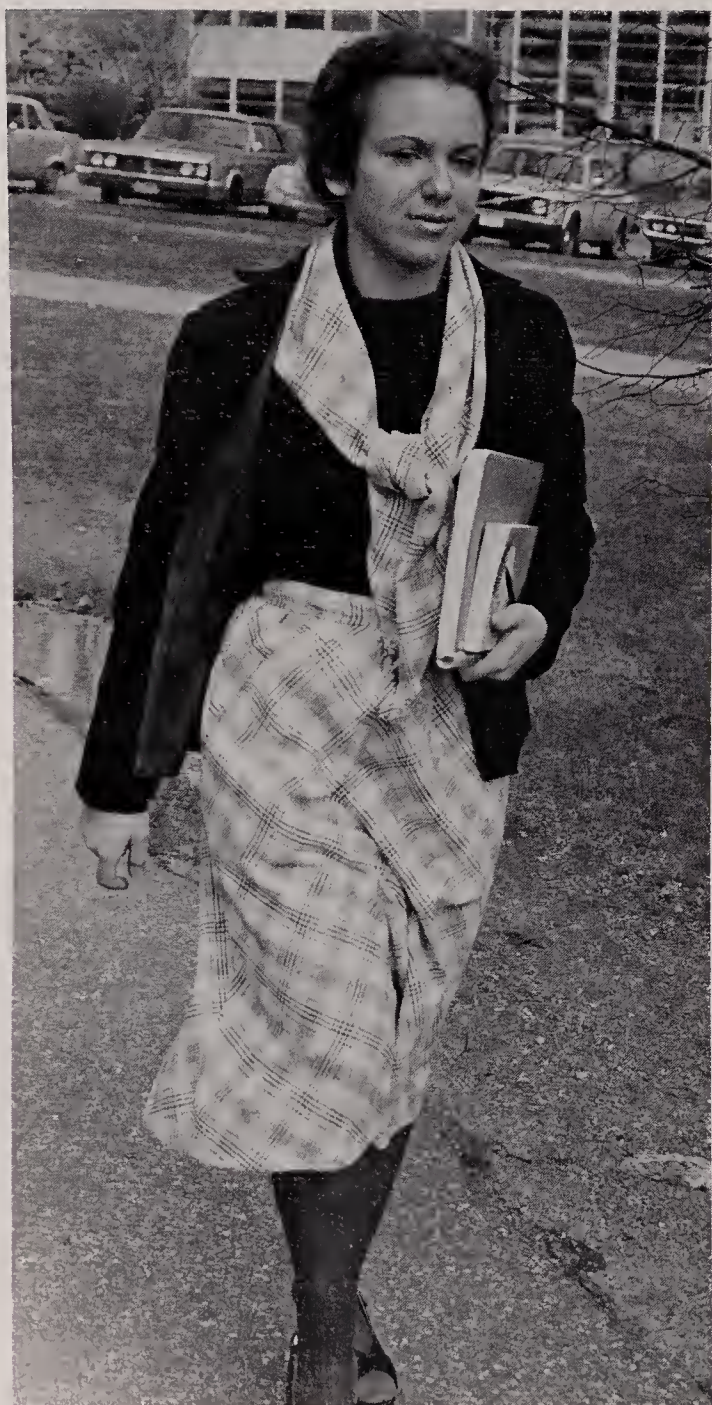

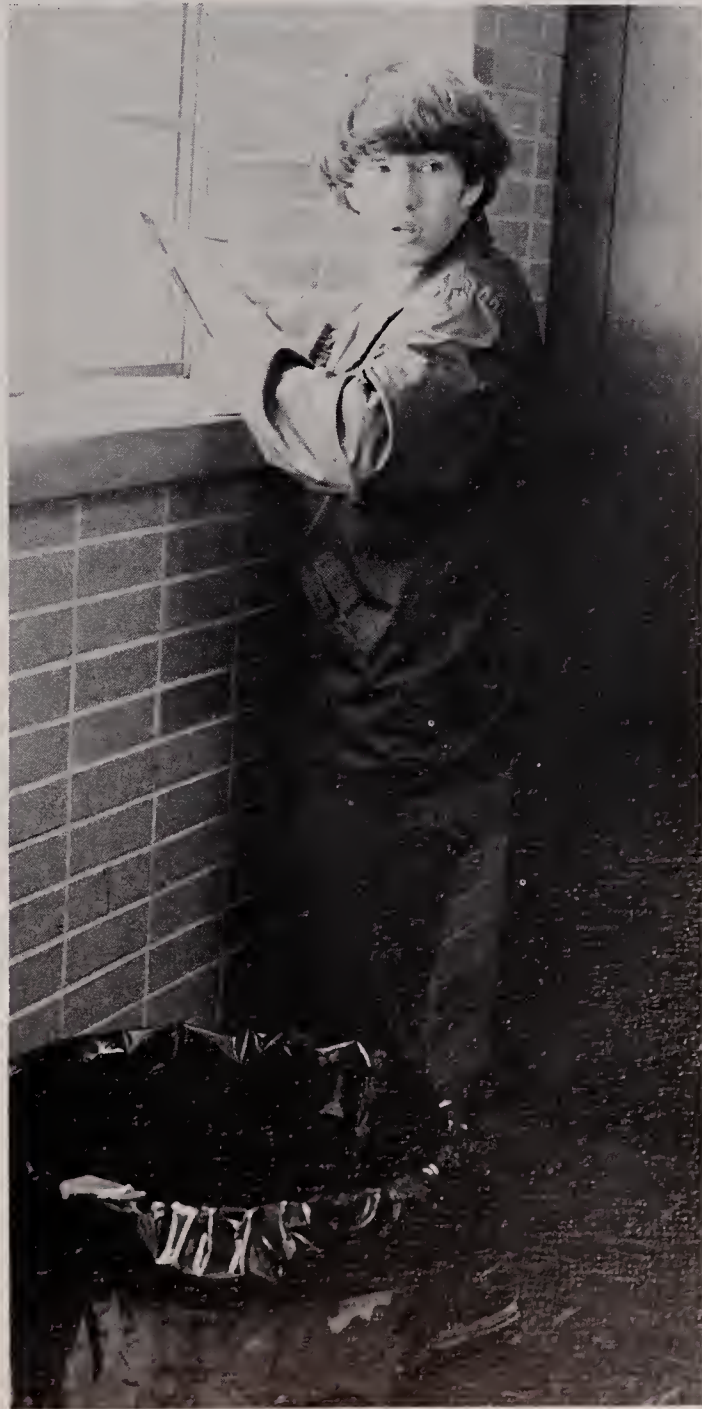

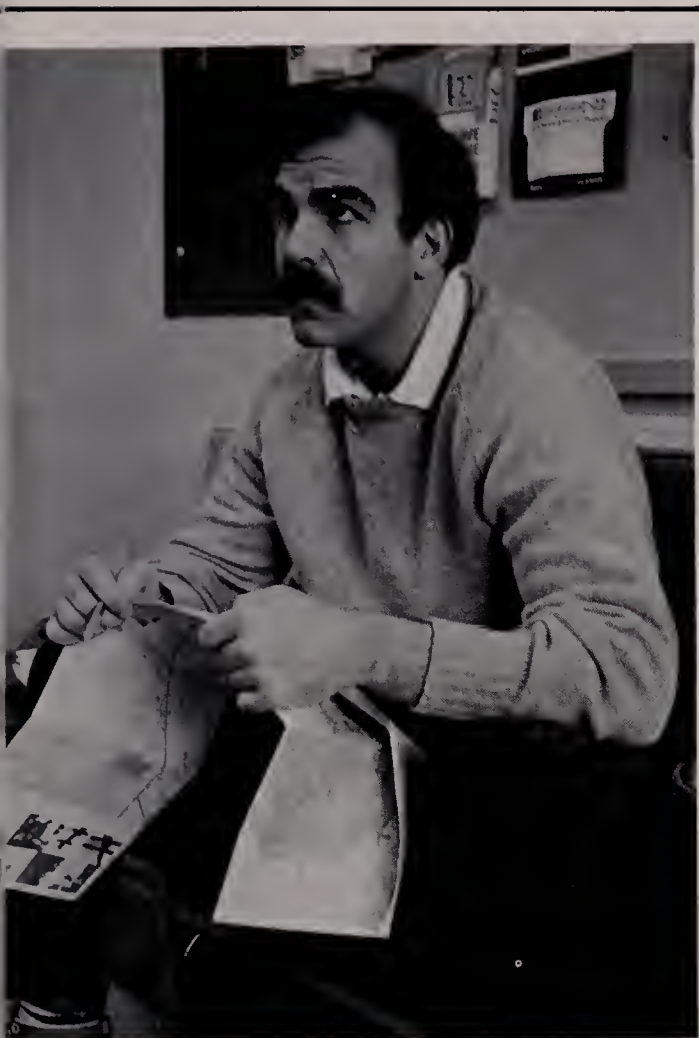

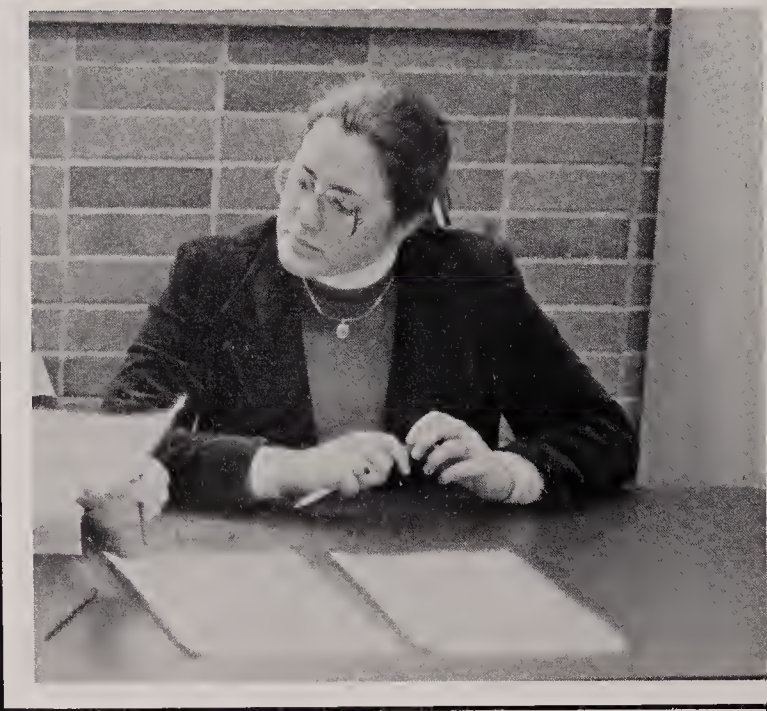

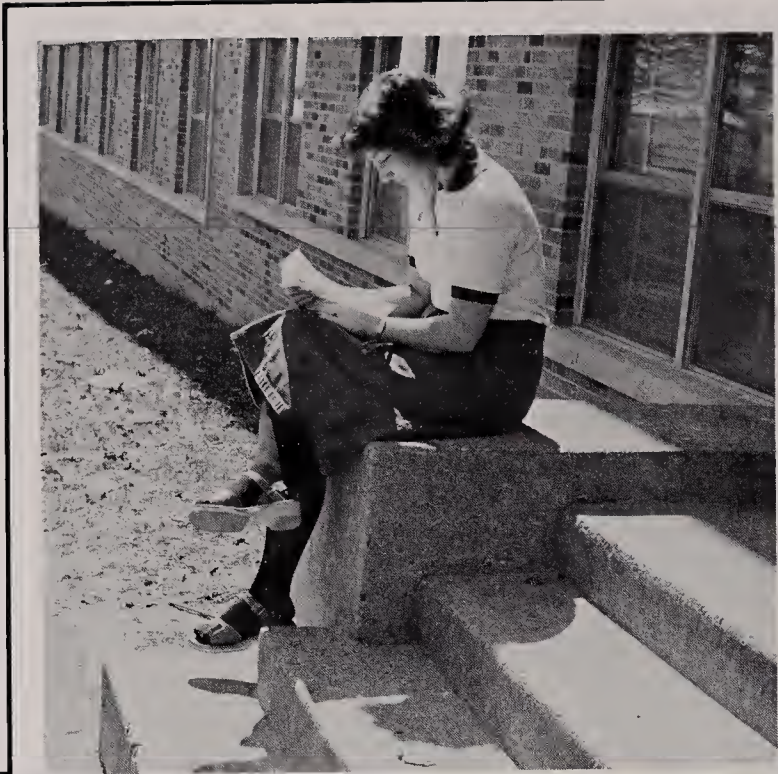

Sometimes I struggle to say something, but
I am always struggling to say it better.

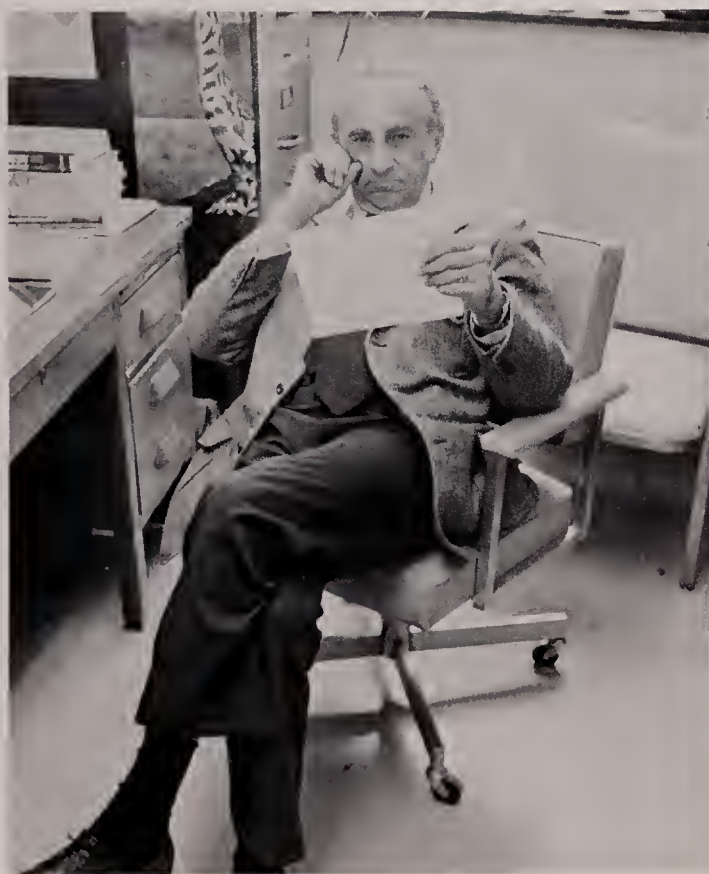

Robert Frost

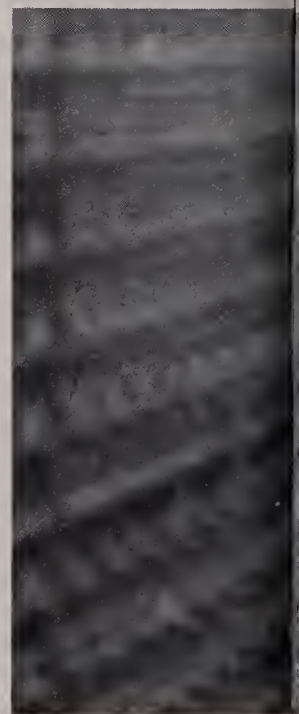

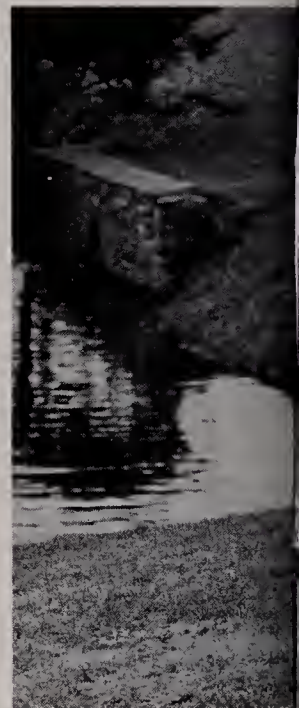

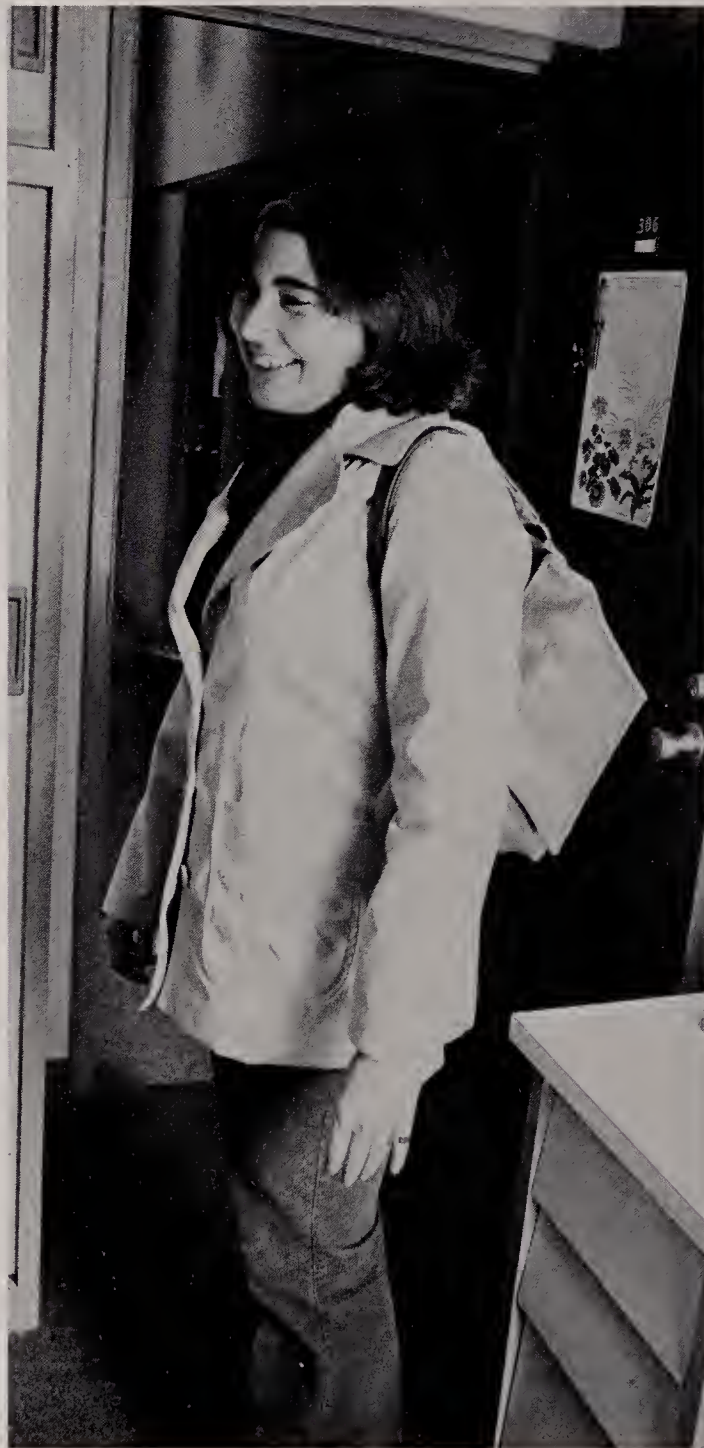

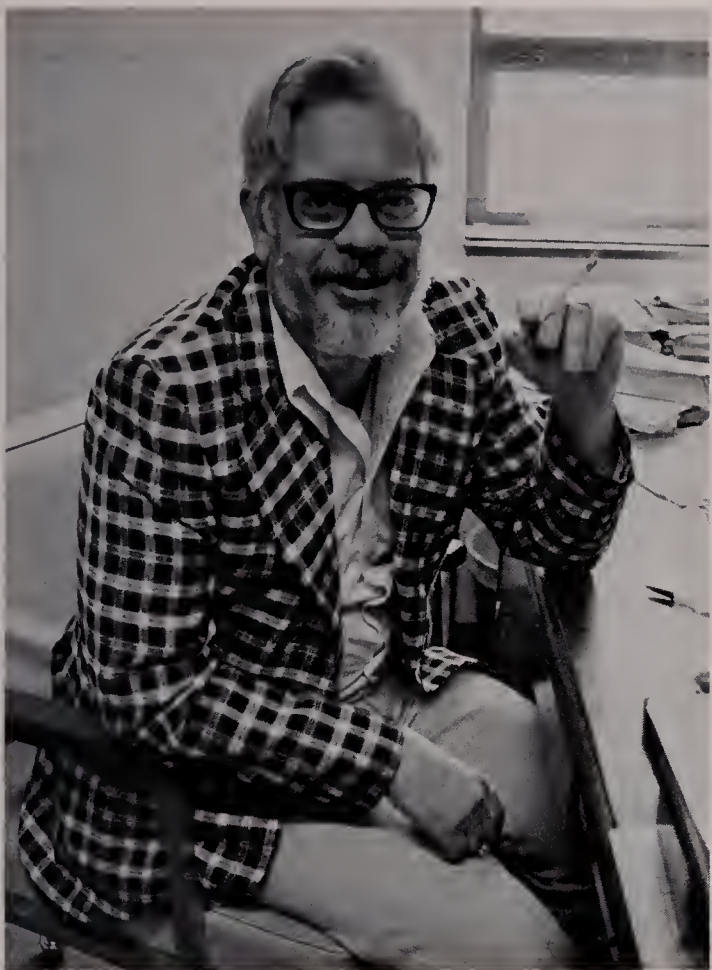

Youth is not a time of life:
 It is a state of mind . . .
 It is a freshness of the deep springs of life.
 Youth means a tempermental predominance
 of courage over timidity,
 Of the appetite for adventure over the love of ease . . .
 Nobody grows old merely by living
 a number of years.
 We grow old by deserting our ideals.
 Samuel Ullman

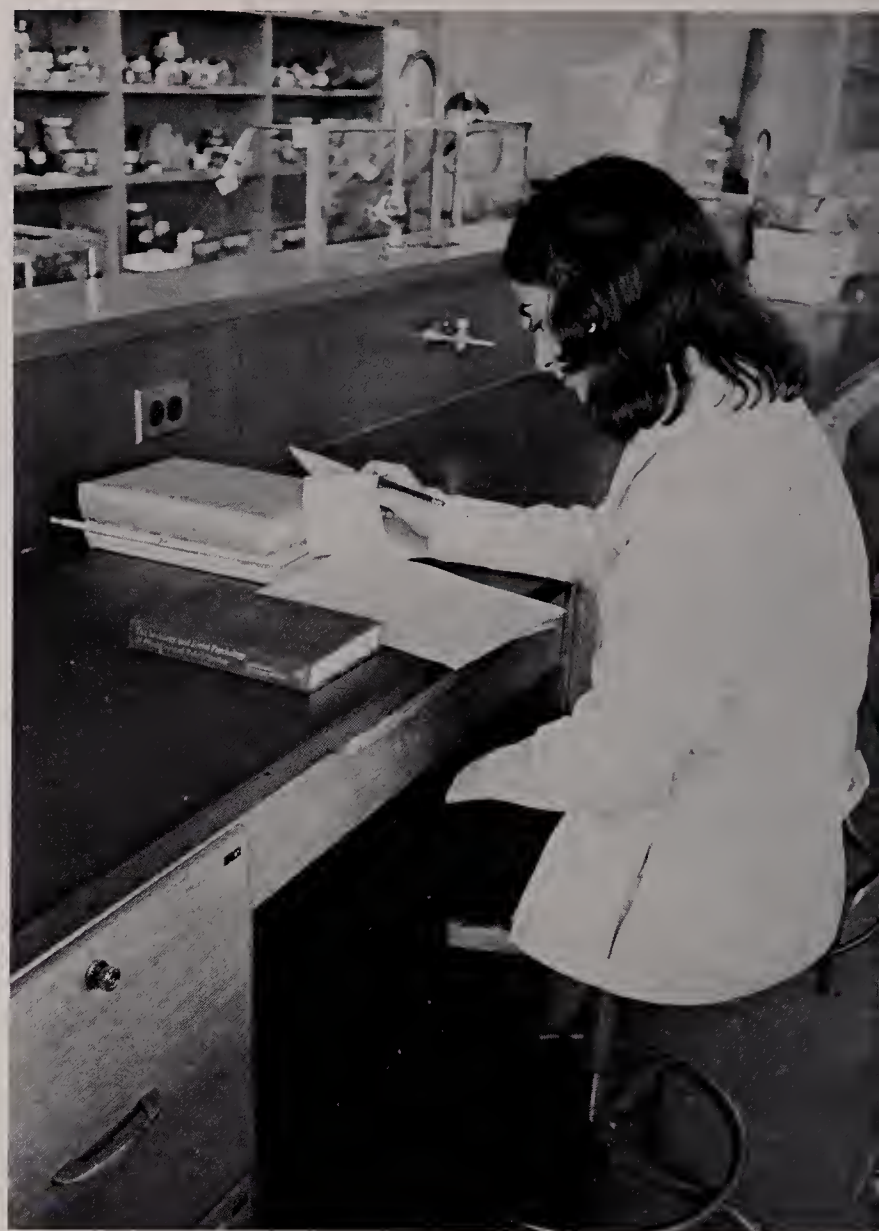

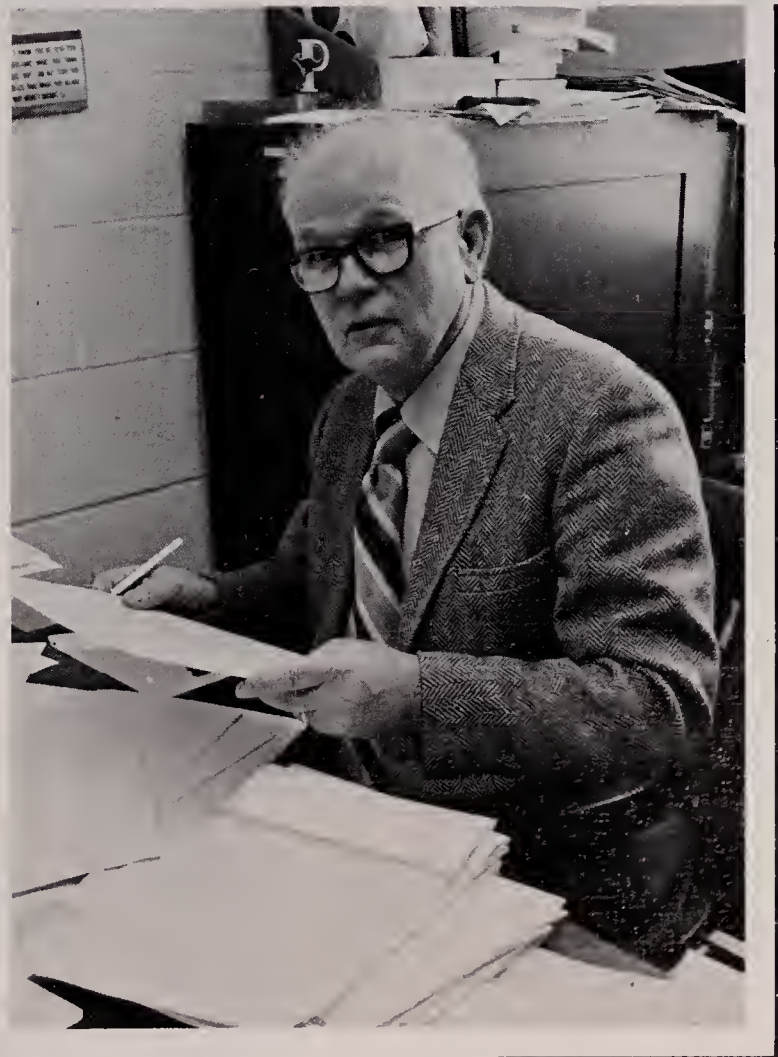

Whether 60 or 16 there is in every human being's heart the lure of wonder, the unfailing child-like curiosity of what's next and the joy of the game of living. In the center of your heart and mind there is a wireless station: so long as it receives messages of beauty, hope, cheer, and courage, you are young.

Blessed are they who have the gift of making friends, for it is one of God's best gifts. It involves many things, but above all, the power of going out of one's self, and appreciating whatever is noble and loving in another.

When you are old and grey and full of sleep,
And nodding by the fire, take down this book,
And slowly read, and dream of the soft look
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep;

How many loved your moments of glad grace,
And loved your beauty with love false or true,
But one man loved the pilgrim soul in you,
And loved the sorrows of your changing face;

And bending down beside the glowing bars,
Murmur, a little sadly, how Love fled
And paced upon the mountains overhead,
And hid his face amid a crowd of stars.
